

The Great (Gatsby) Game

How to play

You must use wits and cunning to keep your belongings safe, get the right combination of evidence, and hard cash to sway the public's opinion of Gatsby. Your identity may be seen as a weapon or a handicap. Be careful who you share information with; you may not know who is allied with whom.

Some characters have evidence. Some don't. You may choose to win alone or with an alliance. There are several opportunities to acquire skill cards, so be sure to check the challenges page. You don't have to join with an alliance to win. Good luck, Old Sport!

Ways to win:

The Mafia:

Bank Documents
Phone Record
Rent Notice
An Invoice
$2500

The Law:

A photograph
Collection of love letters
Pearls
Tom's Butler Testimony
$500

The Press:

A collection of love letters
Photograph
Tom's Butler Testimony
Rent Notice
$1200

The Socialites:

A collection of love letters
Pearls
Dog Leash
Rent Notice
$1800

The Solo Route:

You must have any combination of the starred pieces of evidence and $600.

Alliances and Player Types

There are four types of alliance and players. Some characters are given a bank based on their ability to run/join an alliance others start from scratch.

Press - starts with $100
Mafia - starts with $700
Detective - starts with $0
Socialite - Starts with $300
Free Agent- starts with $200

Evidence

A collection of love letters*
A photograph*
An invoice
Rent Notice*
Bank Documents*
Pearls
Phone Record*
Dog Leash
Tom's Butler Testimony*

Skill Cards

Skill cards are earned, old boy. You must succeed at any of the challenges that come your way!

Sneak

You may look at another player's post box. To play this card, present to the postmaster.

This card may be used once.

Locate

You may know the location of one piece of evidence currently in play.

This card may be used once.

Locate

You may either rob a player of up to $500 or take something from their post box.

This card may be used once.

Locate

One player must reveal to you their alliance OR their identity to you.

This card may be used once.